Who are the Friends?

Friends of Omaha Public Library was founded in 1975. Friends seek to focus attention on the Library, stimulate use of the Library's resources and services, encourage and receive gifts to promote the growth and expansion of the Library, and support and cooperate with the Library in developing services and facilities for the community.

The Friends want the Library to be as good as it can possibly be, to make Omaha a better city and improve the lives of those it serves.

Be a Friend!

Libraries cannot be built or maintained by today's tax dollars alone. To ensure the continued excellence and growth of Omaha Public Library, become a Friend today! Revenues raised through the Friends support Library programs not otherwise possible. The Friends support a strong library system.

Your Friends membership is tax-deductible and so are used book donations to the Friends book sales.

Benefits of being a Friend

People join the Friends for many reasons. The benefits of a Friends membership include:

- Helping to improve Omaha Public Library facilities, programs and services
- A complimentary subscription to OPL's Connect quarterly newsletter
- Tax-deductible giving

Book donations are accepted every day!

Bring your donations to:

Swanson Branch
9101 W. Dodge Rd.

or any OPL branch and indicate FOPL donation.
